

Chernobyl at 20: The Accident Continues

An educational series sponsored by Nuclear Energy Information Service to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the Chernobyl accident

- Tuesday April 25th: “It Can Happen Here: Consequences of a Nuclear Accident near Chicago” – a Power Point presentation by Dr. Andrew Kanter, Physicians for Social Responsibility – Chicago Chapter, 7:00 p.m., Evanston Public Library, 1701 Orrington (at Church St.), Near Davis “L” and Metra stop. Admission free. Discussion to follow.

- Wednesday, April 26th (20th anniversary of the accident)
- Academy Award Winning Documentary, “Chernobyl Heart” 7:00 p.m., Evanston Public Library, 1701 Orrington (at Church St.); Near Davis “L” and Metra stop. Admission free. Discussion to follow.

- Thursday, April 27th: Academy Award Winning Documentary, “Chernobyl Heart” 7:00 p.m., Sulzer Regional Library, 4455 N. Lincoln Ave., Chicago. Near CTA Brown Line Western stop. Admission free. Discussion to follow.

April 26th marks the 20th anniversary of the Chernobyl accident. While the fires have been extinguished, the accident continues for the more than 9 million people affected. Find out more about this event, and what you can do about it.

Also in the Chicago Area:

- Exhibition at the Ukrainian National Museum, 721 N. Oakley, Chicago; (312) 421-8020 for information on events;
<http://www.ukrntlmuseum.org/>